

ATTITUDE OF LOCAL VARSITIES GROWS MORE CONCILIATORY

LOOKS LIKE GAME WILL BE PLAYED BY UNIVERSITIES

Georgetown and George Washington Approaching Agreement.

That conference between E. C. Wilson, graduate manager of football at Georgetown University, and Manager Fitzgerald, of the Georgetown eleven, was held last night, but nothing definite was done about the mix-up over the Thanksgiving game.

It is generally believed that the differences between the managements will be settled, but neither Fitzgerald nor Wilson would say a word about what was done last night, both agreeing that it would not be wise to publish the details of their discussion at this time. An unofficial but authoritative statement of the feeling at Georgetown was obtained this morning, and shows a commendable desire on the part of the athletic powers at that institution to listen to legitimate arguments from the George Washington people. The statement was as follows:

How Georgetown Feels.

"The athletic management at Georgetown declines to discuss the difficulty between Georgetown and George Washington about the date of the George Washington game. The students at large are more outspoken, and from their talk it can be gathered that, while they would regret not to see the annual game between the two universities, they have full confidence in Manager Fitzgerald. They feel assured he will see that any solution of the present difficulty which he will put through will be such as, while showing full courtesy to the students of the rival university, will be for the best interests of Georgetown, both from a business standpoint and from that of true sportsmanship. Past experience has led them to believe also that he will have the full indorsement of the faculty director of athletics.

"The students at Georgetown are naturally indignant at some of the statements going the rounds of the press about their mercenary spirit, their showing in the Fordham game, their unwillingness to abide by past agreements, etc., etc., but it is difficult to get them to enter into controversy in the matter. Report in School Publication.

"They are proud of their possession of the McLean Cup, a handsome affair of silver, worth some $700 in cash, but, as they say, of far more worth for the two clean victories it represents with their light teams of the past two years. They are not familiar with the terms of the agreement made at the time of the gift, though the terms were published at the time in the Daily Press and in their own organ, the Georgetown College Journal. They count on the student managers to keep track of athletic agreements and see to their fulfillment.

Expect Game, Anyhow.

"The new bleachers which have been mentioned in the discussion now supply reserved seats for between eighteen and nineteen hundred people, which is largely in excess of the past capacity of the field. The old bleachers were in a dilapidated condition in places, and these parts had to be torn down; this left the seating capacity of the field very limited. Georgetown wants the game on its own field if possible, and the management never liked the proposition of giving up 25 per cent of the receipts to the proprietors of the National Baseball Park.

"To sum it all up, the students are assured of a good game on Thanksgiving Day, and have no doubt arrangements will be perfected for a game with George Washington as well. Two years ago Georgetown played the Carlisle Indians on Thanksgiving, and still found room for an exciting game with George Washington. It is expected that Manager Fitzgerald will be able to do as well in the matter as did Manager Hanigan of that year."

POTTSTOWN TO PLAY TOME ON SATURDAY

FORT DEPOSIT, Md., Nov. 1.—Tome meets the Hill School in football this season for the first time next Saturday. The game will be played at Pottstown, Pa., and a goodly number of Tome boys will be along to cheer. Two parlor cars have been engaged to carry the team and rosters. With one or two exceptions Tome's players are in good shape and expect to put up a fast game. The Tome eleven and substitutes number nineteen.

When the cold breezes blow— you'll need a coat

This sale means to you an absolute save of from $5 to $10

SURPLUS SALE

of Cravenetted Overcoats and Raincoats of best makes.

Alfred Benjamin & Co. and Kenreign's

Joseph Auerbach, 623 Penn Ave. N. W.

This Is His Busy Time

EDWARD FITZGERALD, Manager Georgetown Football Team.

HYATTSVILLE PLAYS FIRST WITH LANGDON

The Suburban Aggregation Strengthened by New Material.

Hyattsville has put a football team in the field, and will play its first game with Langdon Saturday at Wincos Woods. The game will be called at 4:30 o'clock.

The Hyattsville squad has been hard at work this week, and the aggregation of last year's stars has been strengthened by the addition of two recruits, Parlette and Abbott. At a recent meeting of the candidates Dwight Galt was elected captain, and Parlette chosen manager.

Captain Galt will play at left end this season, and his brother, Frank, who won fame last year at Maryland Agricultural College, will play quarter. Pete has played with Hyattsville before, and has had considerable experience on the M. A. C. eleven. He is a strong advocate of new methods, as was shown by his work in the Maryland State championship series last season. The Hyattsville team will be in his charge until a non-playing coach is obtained.

Fast Backs.

In Herring and Whiting, the back field will make up in speed what it lacks in strength. Whiting is another man who learned the game with the Aggies, and is a consistent ground gainer.

Parlette will be tried at fullback in the game Saturday, and should be made good will fill the position permanently. The line will be composed of the following: Thomas Whinery, Abbott, C. Richards, Quisenberry, and Hickey. Millard Hall will probably play center, if he can arrange to attend the games at all. The squad is anxious to have him back, as he was one of the headiest and fastest of last year's men.

GILL CHOSEN CAPTAIN OF G. W. U. TRACK TEAM

The George Washington field and track teams will be captained by W. D. Gill, '08, this winter.

Gill, who was elected to the position last evening, is the best distance runner in the university. Last year he won the two-mile intercollegiate championship of the South, and has been actively connected with athletics since his entrance into the college.

An attractive schedule is being arranged and Manager Fleming is endeavoring to stir up sentiment toward having a George Washington meet this winter. This event has been talked of for several years, but has each time fallen through. The prospects this year are brighter than ever, as a large number of last year's men have returned and are pulling for the scheme.

KELLY BACKS DOWN.

Hugo Kelly claims that it is too short a time to train for Mike Schreck on Thanksgiving Day at Tonopah, and has refused to fight. The promoters are trying to secure Jack (Twin) Sullivan.

WRESTLERS PLANNING MATCHES

Turner and Monday Dicker—"Terrible Pole" Coming.

The local wrestlers are beginning to get busy again, and several matches are carded for the next month or six weeks.

One of the first, if not the first, regular matches is expected to be between Joe Turner, the rising waterweight of Washington, and Young Monday, of Brooklyn.

Turner has recently hooked up with Edward Trundle, who will manage and train him, and they promise to have something doing on the mat all through the winter. Monday and Turner recently went fifteen minutes to a draw at the New Lyceum Theater, in Washington, and spilled some real blood, besides damaging the bass drum when they rolled off the stage. When time was called they had to be pried apart by the stage hands and police, and the audience was all "hot up." They proved that they can furnish plenty of excitement. Incidentally, they are so nearly evenly matched, that it was almost impossible to say which showed the better form in the short engagement.

Heavyweight Due.

Next week there will be wrestling twice a day at the New Lyceum, when Emanuel Broglio, who modestly styles himself "The Terrible Pole," and intimates that he eats 'em alive, will take on all comers. This devourer of local favorites is not known in Washington. The advance agent of the show says the Pole is a heavyweight about the body, but has attenuated legs, and really only weighs about 165 pounds.

One of those who will probably go after the Pole is Tom Williams, the ambitious midget wrestler, who, in his willingness to tackle stray propositions, big or little, is like unto Strong Man Farley. Williams gets better tomorrow night, and unless Broglio is a world-beater, should give the stranger a hard run. Williams is booked to fight Broglio on Thursday or Friday night.

Rob Roy Mackey recently refurbished his conversational apparatus and began to talk again about going on the mat. He is also a prospective opponent for the Pole.

Joe Turner might take a flyer with the all-caniers' performance early in the week, and as he and Williams are almost sure to meet later this season after Williams has acquired more experience, the Pole will afford an interesting medium by which to compare the local lights.

PREP SCHOOLS FORM BASKETBALL LEAGUE

Representatives from seven preparatory schools of this city met yesterday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. and organized under the name of the Inter-Prep School Basketball League of Washington.

The seven teams which now compose the league are Friends' Select School, Georgetown Preparatory School, Washington School for Boys, Army and Navy Preparatory School, Emerson Institute, the Boys' Department of the Y. M. C. A., University School.

The organization will be controlled by a board of governors, one to represent each team, and another club will probably be constituted and by-laws drawn up to have eight teams. Each quint will meet every other aggregation twice, once on its own grounds, and once at the opponents' hall. The Georgetown prep will play on their own grounds, at Ryan Gymnasium, and most of the other teams will probably play at Y. M. C. A. The season will open about December 1.

The committee appointed to draw up a constitution and by-laws consists of C. L. Spinyer, of the Y. M. C. A.; G. H. Sennsner, of the Friends' Select School; W. R. Phillips of the Georgetown Preps.

TECH AND EASTERN THIS AFTERNOON

Game Will Decide Eastern's Right to Finish Second.

HIGH SCHOOL STANDING.
Technical	W.	L.	Pct.
Western	3	0	1.000
Eastern	2	1	.666
Central	1	2	.333
Business	0	3	.000

The result of the Technical-Eastern game this afternoon will determine whether Western or the Capitol Hill team will finish second in the high school race. The game will be called at 2:30 at National Park.

Technical outweighs Eastern and unless it takes a tremendous slump should defeat the lighter squad. While Eastern has perfected a number of tricks plays Technical has shown itself equally proficient in this department and easily outclasses its high school rivals in new football. The Eastern squad is also fast and were the respective weights anywhere near equal Eastern's prospects would be bright, but it is doubtful whether it can make much headway against the heavy and classy aggregation from the Manual Training institution.

Jack Gass, of Lehigh, who has refereed the high school series, will be on the side lines again tomorrow and Cyrus MacDonald, of Central, will umpire. Mr. Thurston, of Business, will be head linesman.

The Probable Line-up:

Tech.	Positions.	Eastern.
Jannus	L. E. Thompson
Hart	L. T. Murray
McCarthy	L. G. Clark
Galbraith	L. C. Fearse
Spransy	R. G. Brown
Small	R. T. Whitney
Grewett	R. E. Fitzhugh
Marsden	L. H. B. M. S. Farmer
Ellis	R. H. B. M. S. Farmer
Thral	F. B. W. Farmer

Skaters in Local Universities to Hold Relay Race

Halloween night was celebrated in glorious fashion at the Capital City Skating Rink last night.

The event which served as a drawing card was the one and a half mile relay race between the team representing the rink and a picked team. After an exciting and close race for the first mile, the latter team gradually drew away from the rink team, and Masies finished a half lap to the good.

The personnel of the teams is as follows: Picked team, Rosson, Whitket, Burch, and Masies; Rink team, Altman, Plant, Harrison, and Reed.

The management of the rink intends to hold a one and a half mile relay race between teams representing the Georgetown Law freshmen and the Georgetown Washington freshmen. This will not only serve to attract a good deal of interest, but will settle the intense rivalry which is now existing between these two important classes of the respective institutions.

There was talk earlier in the season of playing a football game between a selection of freshmen from each of the universities. But this was dropped through on account of lack of proper place of pulling off the event. The race will be pulled off Wednesday, November 13.

South Atlantic Registrations For October

District National Guard Has Fourteen Entries on the List.

The awakening of fall interest in track circles is evidenced by the increased number of registrations reported by Dr. D. E. Wiber, chairman of the registration committee of the South Atlantic Association of the A. A. U., for October.

The District National Guard seems especially active, having fourteen names enrolled, while the Shamrock Athletic Club has six men on the list.

Applications for registration in the South Atlantic Association should be made to Dr. D. E. Wiber, 1232 F street northwest, Washington, D. C., or to Joseph J. Rattalio, 25 East Pratt street, Baltimore Md.

The list of registrations for October follows:

The October List.

Wm. J. Furnage, D. C. N. G. A. A., 3,523.
Arthur McElroy, W. B. Y. M. C. A., 3,524.
Edw. E. Harris, Shamrock A. A., 3,525.
Clarence Repetti, Shamrock A. A., 3,526.
Bernard T. Hunt, Shamrock A. A., 3,527.
Cecil F. Fiedling, Gurley A. C., 3,578.
E. D. Evans, Gurley A. C., 3,579.
Donald D. Elliott, Baltimore City College, 3,575.
Thos. L. Lloyd, Gurley A. C., 3,578.
A. P. C. Krieger, Central Y. M. C. A., 3,579.
R. M. Cooper, D. C. N. G. A. A., 3,578.
R. M. Mulloy, D. C. N. G. A. A., 3,579.
William C. Herbert, D. C. N. G. A. A., 3,580.
Clemen Solback, D. C. N. G. A. A., 3,581.
Henry Pieper, Unattached, 3,582.
A. C. Wheatley, Unattached, 3,583.
W. H. Suter, Athletics, 3,584.
J. W. Mehling, Maryland Swimming Club, 3,585.
John Ganster, Unattached, 3,586.
Edwin D. Stalport, Baltimore City Club, 3,587.
Harold Rethman, Baltimore City Club, 3,588.
Fred W. Thomas, Baltimore City Club, 3,589.
Clarence E. Keefe, Baltimore City Club, 3,590.
Charles H. Geebe, Fifth Regiment, A. A., 3,591.
Warren S. Heffner, unattached, 3,592.
J. R. Branham, Baltimore City College, 3,593.
D. L. Timanus, Baltimore City College, 3,594.
James Patterson, Baltimore City College, 3,595.
R. E. Stabler, Mt. Washington, 3,596.
H. Crocker, Mt. Washington, 3,597.
D. D. Lawton, B. C. C., 3,598.
Charles Brooks, M. A. C., 3,600.
R. W. Trope, M. A. C., 3,601.
E. D. McDonnell, M. A. C., 3,602.
Harry Cook, Doyle A. C., 3,603.
W. S. Connors, Doyle A. C., 3,604.
Turner Wilshire, unattached, 3,605.
Charles R. Bopp, D. C. N. G. A. A., 3,606.
George Regis, D. C. N. G. A. A., 3,607.
Harry Zannell, D. C. N. G. A. A., 3,608.
Edmund W. Hubard, D. C. N. G. A. A., 3,609.
Maurice Kellher, D. C. N. G. A. A., 3,610.
John J. McDonnell, D. C. N. G. A. A., 3,611.
Gustave E. Beckman, D. C. N. G. A. A., 3,612.
Harry A. Scroggin, D. C. N. G. A. A., 3,613.
W. B. White, D. C. N. G. A. A., 3,614.
Frank E. Schlosser, D. C. N. G. A. A., 3,615.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—Encouraged by the songs and cheers of 500 loyal students, who paraded down to Franklin Field and occupied seats in the south stand, the Pennsylvania varsity team showed a snap and dash in yesterday's practice which had not previously been seen on Franklin Field this week.

The varsity eleven swept the freshman team off its feet, and scored three touchdowns in fifteen minutes' play, but all their gains were made by old-fashioned football and they lost the first-year men back by brute strength alone. Forward passing was less evident yesterday than any time previously this week.

After Wednesday's miserable exhibition the coaches probably decided it would be impossible to perfect the new style in time for tomorrow's game with Lafayette, so they will depend mainly on old-fashioned methods for a victory over the Eastern team, and with this contest past, will again concentrate attention on the forward passing.

MACK GOING WEST.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—Manager Mack, of the Athletics, will leave here early next week for a trip to Los Angeles and San Francisco. He will not return home until February 1, when he will make the final preparations to take the Athletics to New Orleans for spring practice.

PENN ABANDONS FORWARD PASS

Coaches Unable to Perfect Play Before Lafayette Game.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—Encouraged by the songs and cheers of 500 loyal students, who paraded down to Franklin Field and occupied seats in the south stand, the Pennsylvania varsity team showed a snap and dash in yesterday's practice which had not previously been seen on Franklin Field this week.

The varsity eleven swept the freshman team off its feet, and scored three touchdowns in fifteen minutes' play, but all their gains were made by old-fashioned football and they lost the first-year men back by brute strength alone. Forward passing was less evident yesterday than any time previously this week.

After Wednesday's miserable exhibition the coaches probably decided it would be impossible to perfect the new style in time for tomorrow's game with Lafayette, so they will depend mainly on old-fashioned methods for a victory over the Eastern team, and with this contest past, will again concentrate attention on the forward passing.

MACK GOING WEST.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—Manager Mack, of the Athletics, will leave here early next week for a trip to Los Angeles and San Francisco. He will not return home until February 1, when he will make the final preparations to take the Athletics to New Orleans for spring practice.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—Encouraged by the songs and cheers of 500 loyal students, who paraded down to Franklin Field and occupied seats in the south stand, the Pennsylvania varsity team showed a snap and dash in yesterday's practice which had not previously been seen on Franklin Field this week.

The varsity eleven swept the freshman team off its feet, and scored three touchdowns in fifteen minutes' play, but all their gains were made by old-fashioned football and they lost the first-year men back by brute strength alone. Forward passing was less evident yesterday than any time previously this week.

After Wednesday's miserable exhibition the coaches probably decided it would be impossible to perfect the new style in time for tomorrow's game with Lafayette, so they will depend mainly on old-fashioned methods for a victory over the Eastern team, and with this contest past, will again concentrate attention on the forward passing.

MACK GOING WEST.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—Manager Mack, of the Athletics, will leave here early next week for a trip to Los Angeles and San Francisco. He will not return home until February 1, when he will make the final preparations to take the Athletics to New Orleans for spring practice.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—Encouraged by the songs and cheers of 500 loyal students, who paraded down to Franklin Field and occupied seats in the south stand, the Pennsylvania varsity team showed a snap and dash in yesterday's practice which had not previously been seen on Franklin Field this week.

The varsity eleven swept the freshman team off its feet, and scored three touchdowns in fifteen minutes' play, but all their gains were made by old-fashioned football and they lost the first-year men back by brute strength alone. Forward passing was less evident yesterday than any time previously this week.

After Wednesday's miserable exhibition the coaches probably decided it would be impossible to perfect the new style in time for tomorrow's game with Lafayette, so they will depend mainly on old-fashioned methods for a victory over the Eastern team, and with this contest past, will again concentrate attention on the forward passing.

MACK GOING WEST.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—Manager Mack, of the Athletics, will leave here early next week for a trip to Los Angeles and San Francisco. He will not return home until February 1, when he will make the final preparations to take the Athletics to New Orleans for spring practice.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—Encouraged by the songs and cheers of 500 loyal students, who paraded down to Franklin Field and occupied seats in the south stand, the Pennsylvania varsity team showed a snap and dash in yesterday's practice which had not previously been seen on Franklin Field this week.

The varsity eleven swept the freshman team off its feet, and scored three touchdowns in fifteen minutes' play, but all their gains were made by old-fashioned football and they lost the first-year men back by brute strength alone. Forward passing was less evident yesterday than any time previously this week.

After Wednesday's miserable exhibition the coaches probably decided it would be impossible to perfect the new style in time for tomorrow's game with Lafayette, so they will depend mainly on old-fashioned methods for a victory over the Eastern team, and with this contest past, will again concentrate attention on the forward passing.

MACK GOING WEST.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—Manager Mack, of the Athletics, will leave here early next week for a trip to Los Angeles and San Francisco. He will not return home until February 1, when he will make the final preparations to take the Athletics to New Orleans for spring practice.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—Encouraged by the songs and cheers of 500 loyal students, who paraded down to Franklin Field and occupied seats in the south stand, the Pennsylvania varsity team showed a snap and dash in yesterday's practice which had not previously been seen on Franklin Field this week.

The varsity eleven swept the freshman team off its feet, and scored three touchdowns in fifteen minutes' play, but all their gains were made by old-fashioned football and they lost the first-year men back by brute strength alone. Forward passing was less evident yesterday than any time previously this week.

After Wednesday's miserable exhibition the coaches probably decided it would be impossible to perfect the new style in time for tomorrow's game with Lafayette, so they will depend mainly on old-fashioned methods for a victory over the Eastern team, and with this contest past, will again concentrate attention on the forward passing.

MACK GOING WEST.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—Manager Mack, of the Athletics, will leave here early next week for a trip to Los Angeles and San Francisco. He will not return home until February 1, when he will make the final preparations to take the Athletics to New Orleans for spring practice.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—Encouraged by the songs and cheers of 500 loyal students, who paraded down to Franklin Field and occupied seats in the south stand, the Pennsylvania varsity team showed a snap and dash in yesterday's practice which had not previously been seen on Franklin Field this week.

The varsity eleven swept the freshman team off its feet, and scored three touchdowns in fifteen minutes' play, but all their gains were made by old-fashioned football and they lost the first-year men back by brute strength alone. Forward passing was less evident yesterday than any time previously this week.

After Wednesday's miserable exhibition the coaches probably decided it would be impossible to perfect the new style in time for tomorrow's game with Lafayette, so they will depend mainly on old-fashioned methods for a victory over the Eastern team, and with this contest past, will again concentrate attention on the forward passing.

MACK GOING WEST.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—Manager Mack, of the Athletics, will leave here early next week for a trip to Los Angeles and San Francisco. He will not return home until February 1, when he will make the final preparations to take the Athletics to New Orleans for spring practice.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—Encouraged by the songs and cheers of 500 loyal students, who paraded down to Franklin Field and occupied seats in the south stand, the Pennsylvania varsity team showed a snap and dash in yesterday's practice which had not previously been seen on Franklin Field this week.

The varsity eleven swept the freshman team off its feet, and scored three touchdowns in fifteen minutes' play, but all their gains were made by old-fashioned football and they lost the first-year men back by brute strength alone. Forward passing was less evident yesterday than any time previously this week.

After Wednesday's miserable exhibition the coaches probably decided it would be impossible to perfect the new style in time for tomorrow's game with Lafayette, so they will depend mainly on old-fashioned methods for a victory over the Eastern team, and with this contest past, will again concentrate attention on the forward passing.

MACK GOING WEST.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—Manager Mack, of the Athletics, will leave here early next week for a trip to Los Angeles and San Francisco. He will not return home until February 1, when he will make the final preparations to take the Athletics to New Orleans for spring practice.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—Encouraged by the songs and cheers of 500 loyal students, who paraded down to Franklin Field and occupied seats in the south stand, the Pennsylvania varsity team showed a snap and dash in yesterday's practice which had not previously been seen on Franklin Field this week.

The varsity eleven swept the freshman team off its feet, and scored three touchdowns in fifteen minutes' play, but all their gains were made by old-fashioned football and they lost the first-year men back by brute strength alone. Forward passing was less evident yesterday than any time previously this week.

After Wednesday's miserable exhibition the coaches probably decided it would be impossible to perfect the new style in time for tomorrow's game with Lafayette, so they will depend mainly on old-fashioned methods for a victory over the Eastern team, and with this contest past, will again concentrate attention on the forward passing.

MACK GOING WEST.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—Manager Mack, of the Athletics, will leave here early next week for a trip to Los Angeles and San Francisco. He will not return home until February 1, when he will make the final preparations to take the Athletics to New Orleans for spring practice.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—Encouraged by the songs and cheers of 500 loyal students, who paraded down to Franklin Field and occupied seats in the south stand, the Pennsylvania varsity team showed a snap and dash in yesterday's practice which had not previously been seen on Franklin Field this week.

The varsity eleven swept the freshman team off its feet, and scored three touchdowns in fifteen minutes' play, but all their gains were made by old-fashioned football and they lost the first-year men back by brute strength alone. Forward passing was less evident yesterday than any time previously this week.

After Wednesday's miserable exhibition the coaches probably decided it would be impossible to perfect the new style in time for tomorrow's game with Lafayette, so they will depend mainly on old-fashioned methods for a victory over the Eastern team, and with this contest past, will again concentrate attention on the forward passing.

MACK GOING WEST.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—Manager Mack, of the Athletics, will leave here early next week for a trip to Los Angeles and San Francisco. He will not return home until February 1, when he will make the final preparations to take the Athletics to New Orleans for spring practice.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—Encouraged by the songs and cheers of 500 loyal students, who paraded down to Franklin Field and occupied seats in the south stand, the Pennsylvania varsity team showed a snap and dash in yesterday's practice which had not previously been seen on Franklin Field this week.

The varsity eleven swept the freshman team off its feet, and scored three touchdowns in fifteen minutes' play, but all their gains were made by old-fashioned football and they lost the first-year men back by brute strength alone. Forward passing was less evident yesterday than any time previously this week.

After Wednesday's miserable exhibition the coaches probably decided it would be impossible to perfect the new style in time for tomorrow's game with Lafayette, so they will depend mainly on old-fashioned methods for a victory over the Eastern team, and with this contest past, will again concentrate attention on the forward passing.

MACK GOING WEST.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—Manager Mack, of the Athletics, will leave here early next week for a trip to Los Angeles and San Francisco. He will not return home until February 1, when he will make the final preparations to take the Athletics to New Orleans for spring practice.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—Encouraged by the songs and cheers of 500 loyal students, who paraded down to Franklin Field and occupied seats in the south stand, the Pennsylvania varsity team showed a snap and dash in yesterday's practice which had not previously been seen on Franklin Field this week.

The varsity eleven swept the freshman team off its feet, and scored three touchdowns in fifteen minutes' play, but all their gains were made by old-fashioned football and they lost the first-year men back by brute strength alone. Forward passing was less evident yesterday than any time previously this week.

After Wednesday's miserable exhibition the coaches probably decided it would be impossible to perfect the new style in time for tomorrow's game with Lafayette, so they will depend mainly on old-fashioned methods for a victory over the Eastern team, and with this contest past, will again concentrate attention on the forward passing.

MACK GOING WEST.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—Manager Mack, of the Athletics, will leave here early next week for a trip to Los Angeles and San Francisco. He will not return home until February 1, when he will make the final preparations to take the Athletics to New Orleans for spring practice.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—Encouraged by the songs and cheers of 500 loyal students, who paraded down to Franklin Field and occupied seats in the south stand, the Pennsylvania varsity team showed a snap and dash in yesterday's practice which had not previously been seen on Franklin Field this week.

The varsity eleven swept the freshman team off its feet, and scored three touchdowns in fifteen minutes' play, but all their gains were made by old-fashioned football and they lost the first-year men back by brute strength alone. Forward passing was less evident yesterday than any time previously this week.

After Wednesday's miserable exhibition the coaches probably decided it would be impossible to perfect the new style in time for tomorrow's game with Lafayette, so they will depend mainly on old-fashioned methods for a victory over the Eastern team, and with this contest past, will again concentrate attention on the forward passing.

MACK GOING WEST.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—Manager Mack, of the Athletics, will leave here early next week for a trip to Los Angeles and San Francisco. He will not return home until February 1, when he will make the final preparations to take the Athletics to New Orleans for spring practice.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—Encouraged by the songs and cheers of 500 loyal students, who paraded down to Franklin Field and occupied seats in the south stand, the Pennsylvania varsity team showed a snap and dash in yesterday's practice which had not previously been seen on Franklin Field this week.

The varsity eleven swept the freshman team off its feet, and scored three touchdowns in fifteen minutes' play, but all their gains were made by old-fashioned football and they lost the first-year men back by brute strength alone. Forward passing was less evident yesterday than any time previously this week.

After Wednesday's miserable exhibition the coaches probably decided it would be impossible to perfect the new style in time for tomorrow's game with Lafayette, so they will depend mainly on old-fashioned methods for a victory over the Eastern team, and with this contest past, will again concentrate attention on the forward passing.

MACK GOING WEST.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—Manager Mack, of the Athletics, will leave here early next week for a trip to Los Angeles and San Francisco. He will not return home until February 1, when he will make the final preparations to take the Athletics to New Orleans for spring practice.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—Encouraged by the songs and cheers of 500 loyal students, who paraded down to Franklin Field and occupied seats in the south stand, the Pennsylvania varsity team showed a snap and dash in yesterday's practice which had not previously been seen on Franklin Field this week.

The varsity eleven swept the freshman team off its feet, and scored three touchdowns in fifteen minutes' play, but all their gains were made by old-fashioned football and they lost the first-year men back by brute strength alone. Forward passing was less evident yesterday than any time previously this week.

After Wednesday's miserable exhibition the coaches probably decided it would be impossible to perfect the new style in time for tomorrow's game with Lafayette, so they will depend mainly on old-fashioned methods for a victory over the Eastern team, and with this contest past, will again concentrate attention on the forward passing.